

Information about the withdrawal of consent to the processing of personal data of job applicants for the purposes of further (also repeated) contacting by the MMCI, in case of other vacancies and participation in other selection processes.

You can withdraw your consent at any time by sending an e-mail to opem@mou.cz. Your e-mail must be sent from the same e-mail address you provided in the MMCI Applicant Questionnaire form.

Please include in the email subject this line: “Withdrawal of consent”, in the email message, please write:

“I (first name, surname) withdraw my consent to the processing of my personal data by the Masaryk Memorial Cancer Institute (hereinafter referred to as “the MMCI”), in the entirety of the data registered in the MMCI Job Candidate Database for the purpose of further contacting (also repeated), in case of offering vacancies and participation in other selection processes”. Next, indicate the date and again your first and last name.

A competent employee of the MMCI Department of Personnel and Payroll will then send you information about the deletion of your personal data from the MMCI Job Candidate Database.

To withdraw your consent, you can also use the online form available on the MMCI website in the section GDPR and Personal Data Protection or e-mail:
dpo@mou.cz.
